Madison Water So Hard It Will Sandpaper Skin

MADISON, Wis., June 9.—"The water in Madison should be softened, but it is a project not to be thought of, because the people do not and will not realize the necessity," Prof. D. W. Mead told a class in health and disease at the university in an illustrated talk. "The water is too hard, and seriously injures the value of foodstuffs cooked in it," he continued. "A person feels almost as if he had been sandpapered after taking a bath in Madison city water."

Winthrop Dahlgren Gets Injunction in Loan Case

A temporary injunction against foreclosing on a deed of trust given as security on loans to Winthrop Dahlgren, aggregating $21,322.65, was issued today by Justice Stafford against the Real Estate Title Insurance and Trust Company, of Philadelphia, and others.

The temporary relief was granted on the petition of Mr. Dahlgren, who advised the court that the defendants had advertised for sale today securities valued at $55,000 to satisfy the loan.

The court is asked to compel the defendants to make an accounting and to determine judicially the amount due from the plaintiff on the loan transactions. The petition was filed by Attorney Wharton E. Lester.

Alkali in Soap Bad For the Hair

"Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it."

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsum coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dandruff, and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsum coconut oil at any pharmacy. It's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Adv.

Young people need clear complexions

If you find yourself "left out" because of a poor skin, and want a clear, fresh complexion, use Resinol Soap at least once a day. Wash thoroughly with a warm, creamy lather of it, then rinse the face with plenty of cold water.

It does not often take many days of such regular care with Resinol Soap to show an improvement, because the Resinol medication soothes and refreshes the skin, while the perfectly pure soap is cleansing it.

Resinol Soap

should be aided by a little Resinol Ointment, in severe or stubborn cases. Resinol Soap and Ointment are sold by all druggists. For trial free, write to Dept. 26-R, Resinol, Baltimore.
